GOING LIVE

- Once you've cracked the songs, it's all about building fanbase.
- Once you start building a fanbase, the industry may get interested.
- But how do you build a fanbase?
- The best tool for building fanbase is gigging.
- But how do you get a gig?
- You're probably going to have to organise it yourself.

GOING LIVE: QUESTIONS TO ASK

- One-off gig - or regular night?
- What venue can you use? Can you get it for free?
- What is the show going to consist of?
- Do you need to reinvent the music?
- Set? Visuals? Choreography? What's the budget?
- Are you selling tickets? Where? How much for?
- Boring stuff: budget, security, licences, insurance.

GOING LIVE: GETTING AN AUDIENCE

- Making sure your friends show up!
- Who else?
- Collaborating with other artists to expand reach.
- Social media - content, advertising, streaming, offers.
- Take your fans with you - email list, talk about social, free tracks.
- Also trying to influence industry.
